1967 MUSTANG

Eastern Heights

Agra, Kansas

Being able to do things with other people is one of man's most valuable gifts, yet frequently the one he treasures least. He takes friends for granted until his opportunities to be with them are gone forever. He can only look back and rejoice or regret.

When the 1966-67 school year is only a memory, you may open your MUSTANG and remember the first year of Eastern Heights. All the events, activities, and people are a measure of the hours you spent there.

Within these pages you will recapture moments on the football field... or basketball court...or when you cheered the Mustang teams from the sidelines. Scanning the pictures of students and faculty you will be reminded of the classrooms where you worked.

Most of all, you will remember that you were a part of the people who made Eastern Heights. It was here that you had the time of your life!

THE FACES

Unified School District No. 324 school board spent long hours and hard work setting up a new school district, though it has been most difficult and trying at times. They have expectations of a better school in the years to come. The Board of Education met once a month on the first Monday of each month.

Many improvements have been made to provide better schools for the students of Eastern Heights. New lighting in classrooms and halls, new doorways at Agra, new stove for the Kirwin lunchroom, completely remodeled science room and new science equipment, library books and shelving, remedial equipment, all new athletic uniforms, new band uniforms ordered, two new buses, and other educational equipment are some of the major improvements.

Additional courses were offered this year that were not offered at either school last year. They are Spanish, psychology, physics, shorthand, economics, business law, and Drafting II.

MR. MOSIER AND Mr. Schamber discuss school matters during one of their daily conferences.

MR. ROBERT E. MOSIER, superintendent of Eastern Heights, received his Bachelor of Science Degree and Master of Science Degree at Kansas State College of Pittsburg.

Men of the Year Get

MR. CLARENCE A. SCHAMBER, principal of Eastern Heights High School, prepares to make an announcement on the newly installed intercom. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree and Master of Science Degree at Fort Hays Kansas State College. Mr. Schamber taught Bookkeeping this year.

THE FELLOWSHIP

TYPING I STUDENTS develop typing skills that will be useful in any occupation. Here Doris Matteson, Lynn Otis, Anita Abbott, Julia Haskett, and Kathryn Romjue are preparing their lesson for the day. Accuracy and speed are the key to success in this class.

Commerce Department Assists in Expanding Business Skills

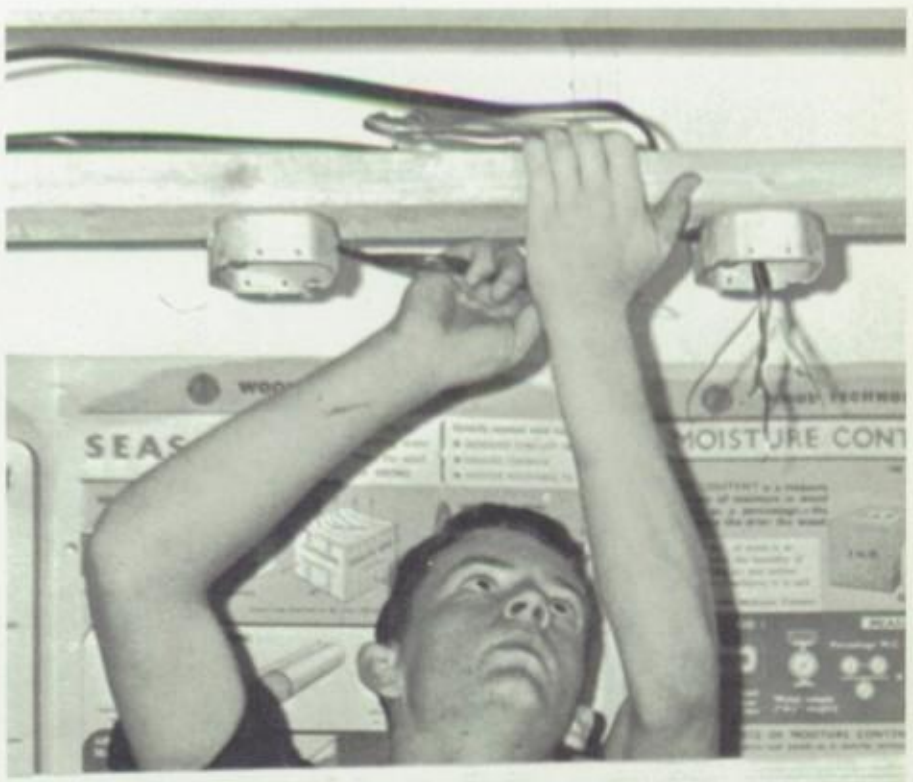
BOOKKEEPING TEACHES the students how to manage books, whether an individual's or a company's books. Howard Robinson completes his second practice set. Each student was required to complete two practice sets.

SHORTHAND STUDENTS practice each day to improve their rate of dictation. They transcribe their letters into mailable copies with a minimum amount of errors. General Business and Economics and Business Law were the other commerce courses offered this year.

ENJOYING THE SUPPER prepared by the Senior girls in Marriage and Family Living for the Senior girls who are not in the class, are Mrs. Siemens, Doris Bell, Carolyn Diercks, Marilla Klinzmann, and Verlene Rose. By doing this, class members applied knowledge learned in the class room.

LEARNING HOW TO care for an invalid was a course covered in Home Economics II. Here Jillinda Blackburn and LeAnn White are practicing changing the bed-sheets without disturbing the invalid.

Interest Runs High in Courses with Immediate Application



INSTALLING AN ELECTRICAL SYSTEM in Senior Shop is Gary Reynolds. Besides learning how to wire a house, the class, also, learned the art of welding the second semester.

PREPARING TO PRACTICE the safe driving tactics that they learned in twelve weeks of classroom work are the Driver Education students, Dean Lawyer, Mark Kaiser and Ronnie Hoover. Each student must have six hours supervised driving experience.

Psychology Introduces Students to Basic Areas of Human Behavior

MR. JONES STARTS Jane Debauche through a maze which determines her ability to learn by trial and error, while Chuck Kincaid times her. The Psychology class also took a guided tour of the State Mental Hospital at Larned.

American Government was divided into two classes because of the large number of students. The American Government students held an election of county officers to participate in County Government Day, which was held on March 6 at Phillipsburg.

Other social science courses offered this year were World History and American History.

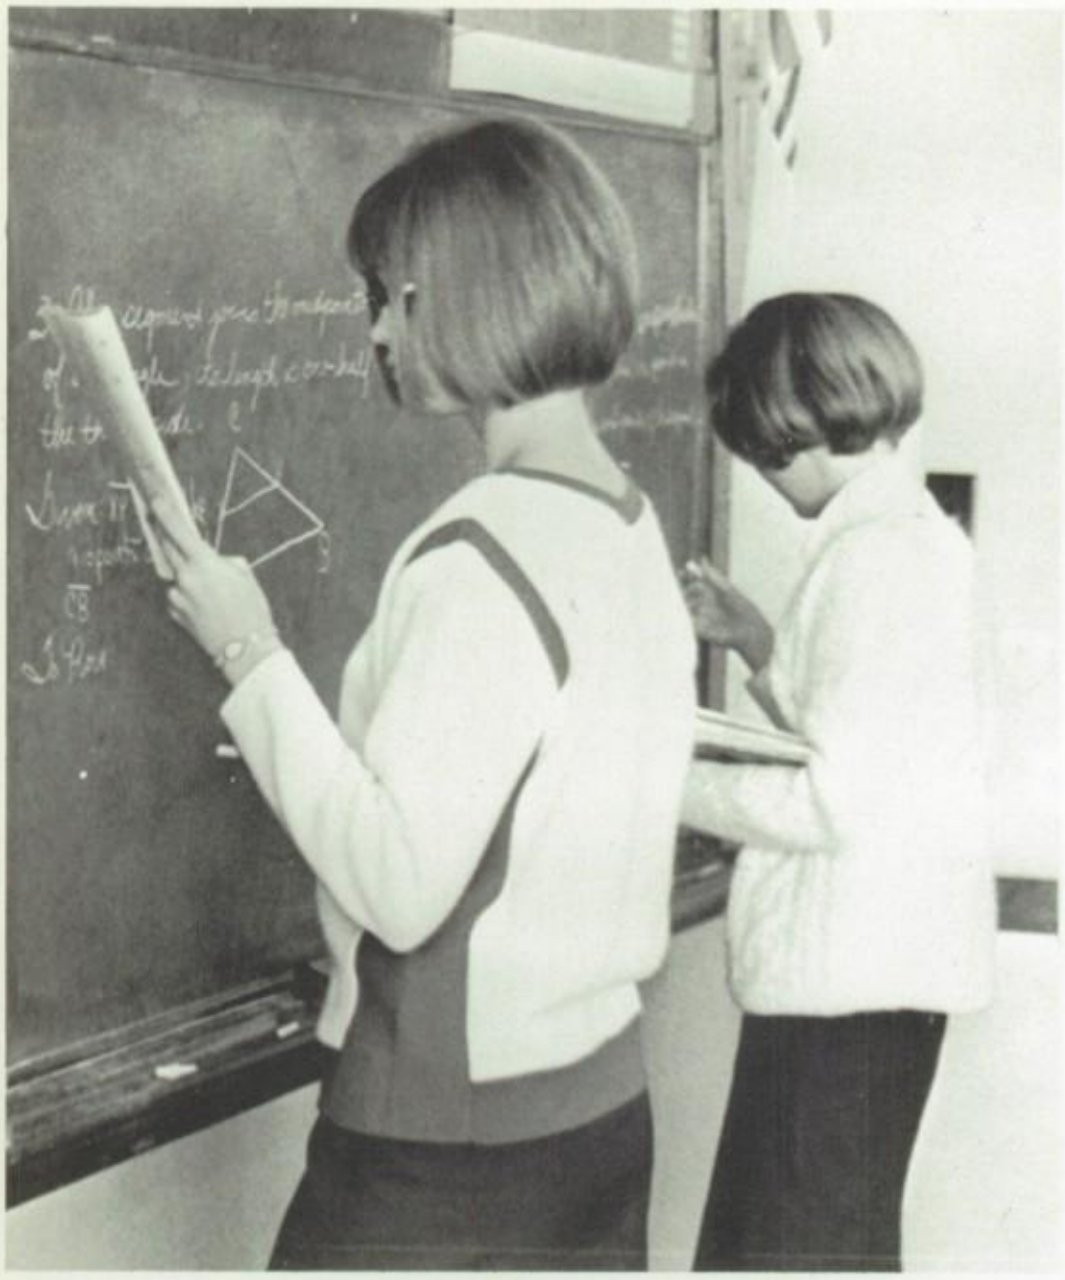
EILEEN GITCHEL AND Warren Larick take a test in Mrs. Redinger's American Government class.

DILIGENTLY WORKING on their term papers are Wanda Goracke, Gerald Kaiser and Chuck Kincaid. Each of the English classes were required to write a term paper during the year.

Spanish Course Offers Students Opportunity to Learn Another Language

LISTENING TO SPANISH tapes, the Spanish student becomes more fluent in the art of speaking Spanish.

THE DIFFICULT TASK of combining the libraries and cataloging the books was completed by the Eastern Heights librarians under the guidance of Mrs. Redinger. The librarians are Mrs. Redinger, Jim McGuire, Leslie Smith, Alan Abbott, Verlene Rose, Rita Goracke, Linda Wilson, and Eileen Gitchel.



CHECKING DETAILS OF their Geometry proofs, Kay Wyley and Linda Wyley prepare to present them to the class. The "modern approach" to mathematics was used in General Mathematics, Algebra I, Geometry, and Algebra II, the mathematics courses offered this year to the students of Eastern Heights. Among the improvements to the Mathematics Department were an overhead projector and new lights.

New and Improved Equipment Aids Students in Science and Mathematics Courses

"IMAGINE! SENIORS blowing bubbles?" By blowing bubbles, though, the Physics students learn about molecular cohesion. Science courses taught this year were Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics. The buying of new science equipment and the adding of six laboratory units were major improvements in the Science Department this year.

Health and Physical Education Courses Develop An Awareness for Fitness

"NOW WE CHECK your pulse." Practicing First-Aid in Health, Sue George, Anita Robinson, and Edna Larick learn life-saving techniques.

"READY. FIRE!" David Wyrill gets ready to launch his ball, while Robert Kaiser has just finished throwing his ball. All Freshmen are required to take Health and Physical Education. This year in Physical Education they participated in such sports as dodgeball, volleyball, basketball, badminton, and softball.

Mustang Staffs Gain Journalistic Experience

The Publications class was in charge of publishing a paper every two weeks and publishing the 1967 MUSTANG. The class also selected the name for the paper and annual from a list of suggestions. The paper was named the MUSTANG ROUND-UP, and the annual was titled MUSTANG.

The Publications class was divided into a paper staff and an annual staff. The MUSTANG ROUND-UP staff included Rita Goracke, editor, Kathy Bogart, Linda Wyrill, co-editor, Gary Reynolds, Jim McGuire, Alan Abbott, Mrs. Hildreth, advisor, Bob Still, Junior McDowell, and Alan Mueller. Besides the bi-monthly issues of the MUSTANG ROUND-UP, the paper staff published a senior paper at the end of the year.

The 1967 MUSTANG staff included Marilla Klinzmann, editor; Val Reed, business manager; Mr. Maxwell, advisor; Linda Wyley, copy editor; and Sherry McDowell, lay-out editor. Val Reed, as business manager, was in charge of the advertising section. Linda Wyley wrote the copy for most of the pages, and Sherry McDowell planned the lay-out for the pages.

Band Members Work Towards Purchase of New Uniforms

The Eastern Heights Band performed at many activities. They played at all home football and basketball games. The Mustang band also marched in the Old Settler's Day.

They participated in the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert, and the Pop Concert.

The band traveled to Concordia to the State Music Festival where they received a IV on their numbers and a III on sight reading.

The members of the band worked hard at two bake sales and slave days to raise money to buy new uniforms, which they will receive next year.

PROVIDING SPIRITED MUSIC for Pep Rallies and home games was the Pep Band.

LEADING THE BAND in marching routines were Leslie Smith, twirler, and Janet Munyon, drum majorette.

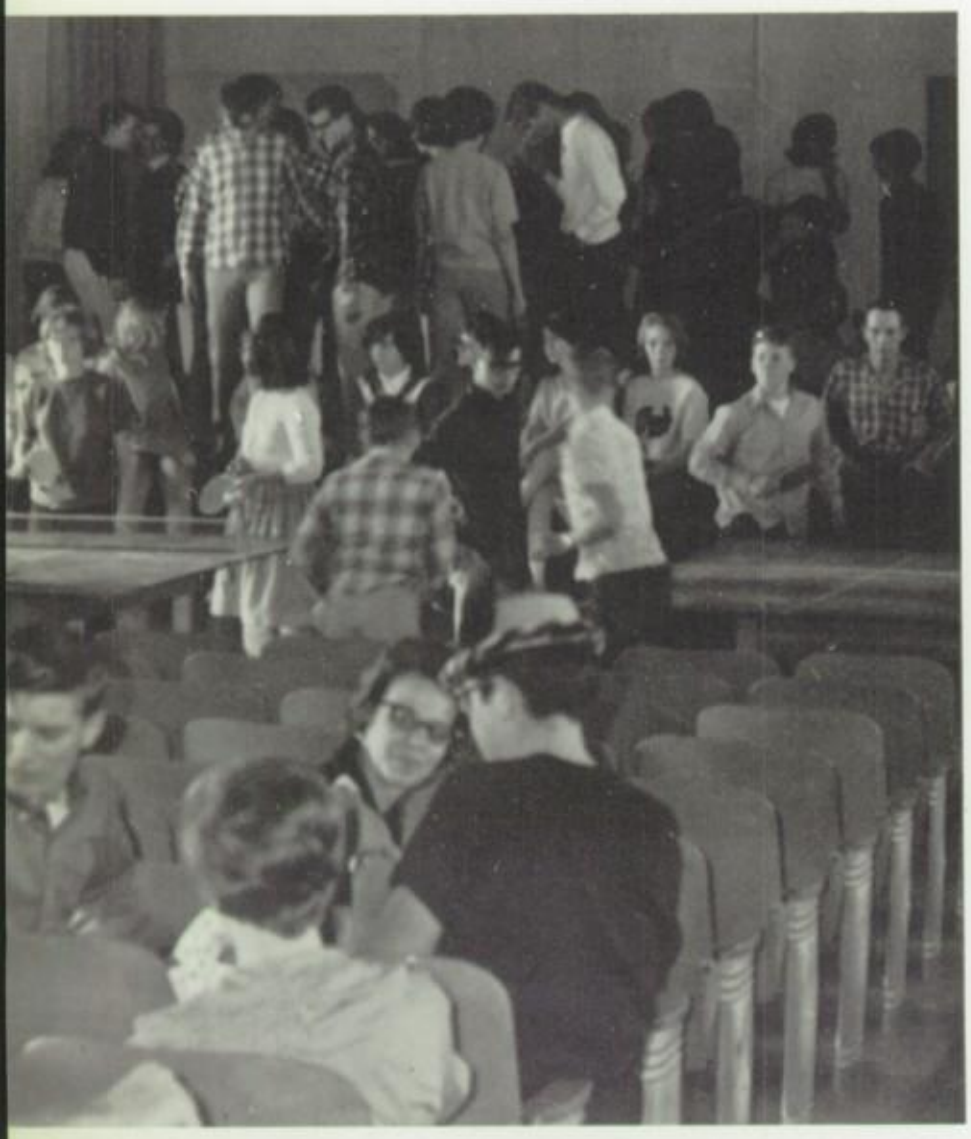
The Student Council drafted a Constitution for Eastern Heights in the fall. They studied the Constitution of other schools and wrote one that would apply to Eastern Heights.

The Student Council sponsors a sloppy day every two weeks. On sloppy days the Student Council also sponsors an open noon hour of recreation. The day after each sloppy day, the Student Council sponsors a dress-up day. The students wear clothes that are better than just everyday school clothes. The Student Council raised money in the fall and bought a Mustang plaque for the student body which will be hung in the gymnasium.



ONE OF THE PROJECTS the Student Council sponsors is an open noon hour on sloppy days, when the students can play ping-pong or participate in other activities.

LEADING THE FIRST Eastern Heights Student Council are Mr. Schamber, sponsor; Craig Dettmer, vice-president; Verlene Rose, secretary-treasurer; and Chuck Kincaid, president.

KAYETTE MEMBERS ARE: (Front Row) S. Losey, E. Larick, K. Bradley, D. Powell, D. Bogart, R. McCormack, J. Schmid, S. Dix, C. Diercks, C. Bradley, A. Abbott. (Second Row) Mrs. Redinger, M. Kayettes Earn 3000 Point Award

Kayettes live "Today for Tomorrow" as their motto states. By participating in many worthwhile projects through the year, they gain a better understanding of the world's and country's needs and the feeling of achievement. This year the Kayettes are working for their 3000 point award, which is the highest award possible. To earn their points, the Kayettes have to meet certain requirements that are set up by the state organization.

Some of the major projects the Kayettes sponsored this year were school clean-up, caroling, cerebral palsy, fruit baskets, goodwill industries meals for millions, and the pupil-to-pupil program. They also sponsored several minor projects.

The Kayettes played a basketball game, sold holly, and had concession stands as their finance projects for this year.

The Valentines Party was the Kayettes major recreation project for this year, and they also sponsored a club party in the spring.

"GIVE ME THE BALL," Mass confusion? Yes. The Kayettes had fun playing basketball as a money making project to help finance their many projects. The "mighty" Senior-Freshmen defeated the Juniors-Sophomores.

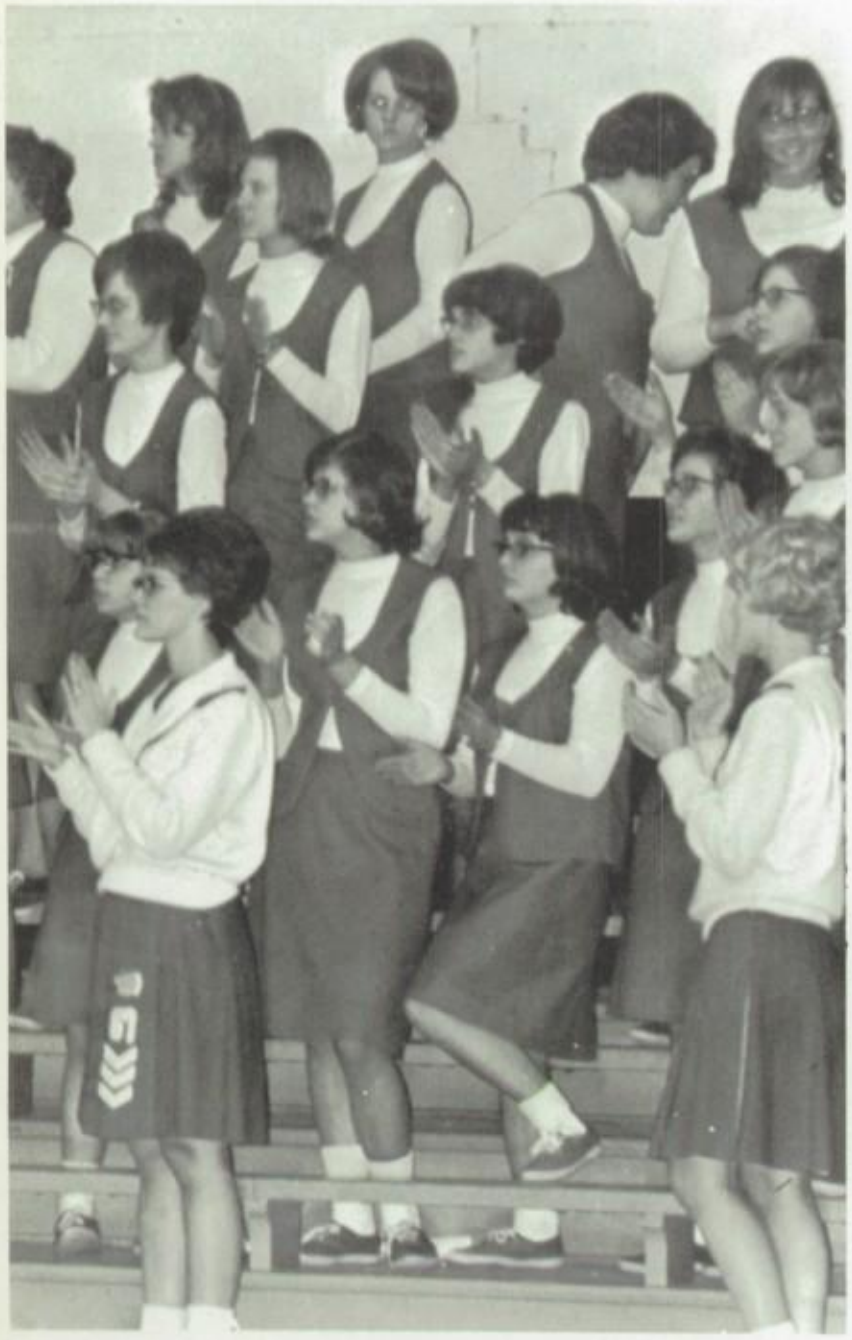
Spirited Pep Club Adds Color to Athletic Contests



TENSION MOUNTS during both a football game and a basketball game, as the Pep Club boosts the boys with spirited yelling.

ADMIRING THE MUSTANG banner, a gift from the faculty, are the Pep Club officers: Wanda Goracke, president; Linda Wyley, vice-president; Mrs. Siemens sponsor; Janet Munyon, treasurer; and Mary Beth Nedrow, secretary.

Boosting the boys' spirit through yelling, and supporting them through thick and thin are the main objectives of the Eastern Heights Pep Club.

Last summer, the Pep Club sent Kay Wyley and Jane Matteson to cheerleading camp. They also sent the four cheerleaders to cheerleading clinic at Kansas State University.

The Pep Club was in charge of the Homecoming activities, which were climaxed by a dance after a victory over Damar. The first Eastern Heights Christmas party was sponsored by the Pep Club.

To finance their activities, the Pep Club had concession stands at football and basketball games. In addition, they also sold E.H.H.S. Mustang sweatshirts.

EVADING an Orleans tackle is Junior McDowell (33).

KEVIN ABBOTT (12) takes over command of the Mustangs after Chuck Kincaid is injured.

The Mustangs played the first game of their 1966 football season against a powerful Luray team, and were defeated. The Mustangs came back, though, the next week by easily beating the Long Island Leopards in their first league game.

In the next game the Mustangs were defeated by the Bogue Bluejays. Against Damar, the Mustangs came back in the final minutes to win a thrilling Homecoming game. Mustang quarterback, Chuck Kincaid, broke his collarbone in the Damar game and was unable to finish the season.

In their next game, the Mustangs lost to Alton, who won the league, in the wettest game of the season. The Mustangs also lost their next two games to Esbon and Orleans, Nebraska.

The Mustangs finished their final game of the season with an easy victory over Woodston, and placed third in the league with a 3-2 league record.

The co-captains for the Mustang team were Chuck Kincaid and Junior McDowell.

Royalty Review

Junior and Janet

and Jane

Suspense filled the air until the announcement by Mr. Schamber of King Alan Abbott and Queen Linda Wyley at the first Eastern Heights Homecoming on October 7, 1966.

The honored couple then took their place on the royal float followed by Jane Matteson and Chuck Kincaid, first attendants, and Janet Klinzmann and Junior McDowell, second attendants.

Superintendent Robert Mosier crowned King Alan who in turn crowned Queen Linda and sealed the coronation with a kiss. Crownbearers were Sherry Capps and Brad King. The royal couple and attendants were presented with white mum corsages and boutonnieres by Kerry Mosier, Kathy White and Marty Ross then presented the attendants with souvenir footballs. The high school band serenaded the royal court with "Little Star."

To climax the festivities the Mustangs won the thrilling Homecoming game with a 20-18 victory over Damar.

A Homecoming dance followed the game in the high school gymnasium, decorated by the Pep Club.

THE FUN

Eastern Heights Participates in 35th Annual Old Settlers Day at Kirwin

SENIORS FLOAT, "The Statue of Friendship," captures first in the 7-12 grade division. The classes had three nights to work on their floats; here the Seniors are busy working on their letters for their float.

PLACING THIRD IN their division was the Juniors' float, "Life, Liberty, and Happiness." The students entered into the planning and construction of their floats with a great deal of enthusiasm.

GARNERING SECOND place were the Sophomores with their float, "Support Your Country." Each class constructed their floats in the Community Building at Kirwin.

THE FRESHMAN FLOAT depicts "World Peace." Students enjoyed the competition and fellowship.

THE ONE-ACT PLAY, "The Meeting of the Mamasan," made a fine showing at the District Speech and Drama Festival receiving a I rating, and at the State Speech and Drama Festival where they received a II rating. "The Meeting of the Mamasans" play cast included Betty Gower (Mrs. Tanaka), Janice Schmid (Molly Tanaka), Barry Miller (Alvin Burger), Mr. Charles Webb (director), and Doris Bell (Mrs. Burger). Carolyn Diercks was the stage manager.

The story involves the conflicts between the East and West customs and foods when Molly and Alvin want to get married. Both of their parents object to the marriage because of the different backgrounds. After talking together, Mrs. Tanaka and Mrs. Burger find that no matter where someone lives people have the same feelings.

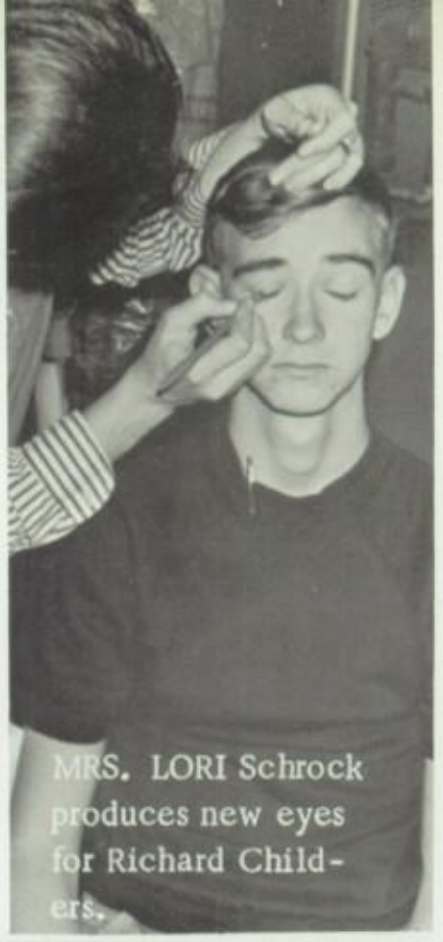
Juniors Sprout Whiskers for the Play "The Katz' Whiskers"



MRS. LORI Schrock produces new eyes for Richard Childers.

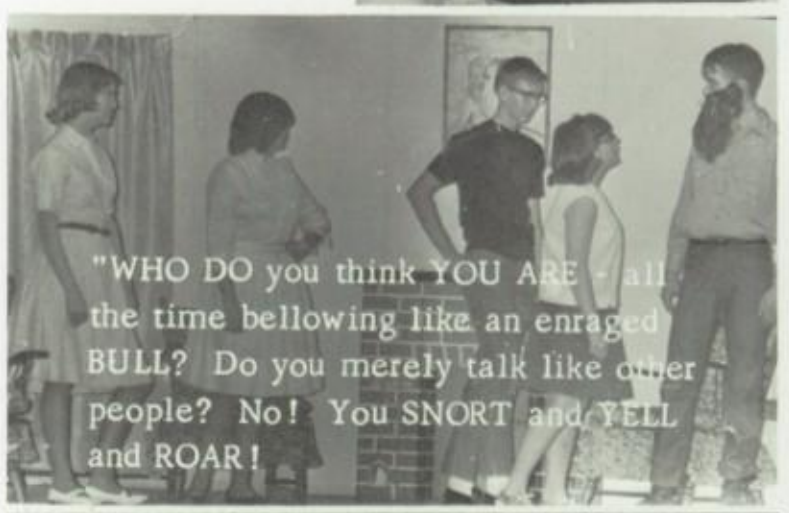
"The Katz Whiskers" was presented by the Junior Class November 18, 1966. This three-act comedy was set in Kitty Katz's boarding house.

Discovering Uranium on his farm, John Tom Katz became a rich man over night. He is a tall, shaggy man with piercing dark eyes deep-set under heavy black brows. His tangled array of whiskers-bearded to the eyes-hides a horrible scar on his face.

Paying a visit to his relatives at the boarding house, John Tom decides to set a reward of ten thousand dollars to the nephew, Tiger or Pole, who could support the best crop of whiskers. All of the women at the boarding house, except Kitty, tried to get John Tom's money through matrimony. Each prospect plans tricks to pull on all the others to try to make them appear undesirable in John Tom's eyes.

In the end, Tiger won the ten grand and John Tom chose Kitty for his one and only.

"THE KATZ WHISKERS'" cast members are (standing), Mr. King, (Sponsor), Nancy Haskett (Cousin Tabby Katz), Warren Larick (Clem Corkins), Betty Gower (Allie Katz), Kevin Abbott (Humboldt Buzard), Kevin McDowell (sound effects), Carol Herbel (prompter), Leslie Smith (Ardyth Helfer), Sherri Baker (Gwendolyn Helfer), Jane Debauche (Elviry Sapp), Howard Robinson (Oscar Jorgenson). (Sitting) Janet Munyon (Thelma Thorpe), Myron McCormack (Pole Katz), Mary Beth Nedrow (Kitty Katz), Robert Rahjes (Uncle John Tom Katz), Alvin Gaines (Tiger Katz), Darlene Bruning (Kay Ryland), Richard Childers (Duck Mallard), Peggy Johnson (Puss Katz).



"WHO DO you think YOU ARE - all the time bellowing like an enraged BULL? Do you merely talk like other people? No! You SNORT and YELL and ROAR!

"COME ON, you and me are high-tailin' it back to the carny-grounds."

"REST ASSURED" PLAY CAST are Linda Wyrill (Miss Akers), Alan Mueller (George Plew), Jim McGuire (Dr. Brown), Verlene Rose (Mrs. Frinck), Val Reed (Jake), Kathy Bogart (Mary Morlock), Bob Still (Joe Lanconi), Linda Wyley (Martha Lanconi), Gary Reynolds (Luigi Lanconi), Wanda Goracke (Jessica Morlock), Craig Dettmer (Mr. Black), Chuck Kincaid (Mr. Morlock), Junior McDowell (Lucifer), Janet Klinzmann (Mrs. Morlock), Doris Bell (Mrs. Schmaltz), Marilla Klinzmann (Mildred), Alan Abbott (Stage Manager), Mr. Lawrence (Director).

Seniors Work to Produce "Rest Assured"

Mr. Phillip U. Morlock, a money grabber, won't let his family do anything. He forbids his daughter Mary to become engaged to Joe Lanconi because Joe's papa, Luigi, is poor. Luigi comes to plead his case and a fight between them develops. Luigi dies, because of a bad heart, and gets permission to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock. In his despair, Mr. Morlock accidentaly takes too many sleeping pills. He, too, kicks the bucket. Lucifer, then, drops in--pitch fork and all--to take Mr. Morlock to the lower regions. Mr. Morlock watches life go on as if nothing has happened. Mary prepares for her wedding, Jessica prepares to start her wrestling career; and Mother Morlock is actually smiling and holding hands with Dr. Brown. Mr. Morlock now realizes what a heel he's been. Mildred the maid awakens him from the bad dream. A very reformed Mr. Morlock makes vast promises, okays the wedding, and peace finally reigns at the Morlocks.

"AH-H-H-H-H" "She's found you."

"I'M HAVING my pains. My pains!"

"WE'RE playing games, Luigi's stampeding."

"You, Morlock?"

"THE ONE spot to hit a man when wanting to knock him out is right behind the ear."

"FALL in, Morlock."

Pep Club Decorates Gym in Winter Wonderland Scene

Winter filled the air at the first Eastern Heights Christmas party held on December 17, 1966 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. The decor of snowflakes and a winter scene provided the atmosphere of "Winter Wonderland."

Highlighting the evening was the crowning of the Prince and Princess.

Adding to the merriment of the evening, Santa Claus appeared in his oversized trousers, minus his belt. Inspite of his predicament, Santa and his helpers managed to distribute all of the gifts.

Adding entertainment to the party before the arrival of Santa Claus, Verlene Rose sang "All I Want for Christmas is My Two Front Teeth."

"Cupid Capers" at the Valentines Party

Pink and white streamers greeted the students of EHHS at the first Valentine's Party on February 18, 1967.

The ceiling was made of draped white paper and pink streamers. On the north side, the Kayettes had stuffed pink napkins in a large heart and decorated it with a cupid. The theme, "Cupid's Capers," was spelled out with pink hearts on the west side. Pink and white streamers, adorned with pink hearts, decorated the remaining walls.

Dancing and valentine word games provided the entertainment for the evening.

"Three Coins in the Fountain" Adds A Finishing Touch to the Year's Activities.

"Three Coins in the Fountain" was the theme of the first Junior-Senior Banquet in the Eastern Heights Gymnasium on May 6, 1967.

The Junior class worked hard the week before decorating the gymnasium, using an ivy clad white wall enhanced with pink, blue, and green streamers. The ceiling consisted of yellow streamers forming two canopies centered by two red globes at the apex. A large fountain under a white canopy trimmed with pink roses was the center of attraction.

The banquet dinner was prepared by the mothers of the Junior class and served by Anita Abbott, Paul Goracke, Jillinda Blackburn, Tom DeBey, Kay Wyley, Clifford Kendall, Doris Matteson, Denis Miller, LeAnn White, and Terry Merrifield.

A Welcome was given by Kevin Abbott, Junior class president, and a response for the guests was given by Linda Wyley, Senior class president. Anita Abbott, Doris Matteson, LeAnn White, and Kay Wyley sang the theme song, "Three Coins in the Fountain." Terry Merrifield, Jillinda Blackburn, Denis Miller, and Anita Abbott presented a skit. A Prophecy and Will composed by the Juniors was read by Peggy Johnson and Betty Gower, respectively.

Climaxing the evening of memories was the dancing to live music provided by the "Assignment."

Awards Bestowed upon Deserving Students

The presentation of all awards earned by the students of Eastern Heights was held on May 16, 1967. The Senior class history was given by Jane Matteson. Rita Goracke read the class will and the class prophecy was read by Carolyn Diercks. Chuck Kincaid announced that the seniors had ordered an American flag to be displayed in the gymnasium.

Janet Klinzmann was presented with the Betty Crocker Award by Mrs. Siemens. Mrs. Siemens also announced Marilla Klinzmann as the Homemaker-of-the-Year.

Mr. Lawrence presented the Industrial Arts awards. Howard Robinson and Richard Childers received rosetted ribbons from the Industrial Arts Fair at Hays for outstanding performance in architectural drafting.

Peggy Johnson was voted Kayette-of-the-Year by the Kayettes, and Mrs. Redinger presented her with a gift.

Peggy Johnson accepted the Savings Bond Sales Award from Carl Rodgers for the Kayettes participation in the savings stamp program.

Eldon Klinzmann, Legion commander, announced Marilla Klinzmann and Craig Dettmer as the recipients of the American Legion Award.

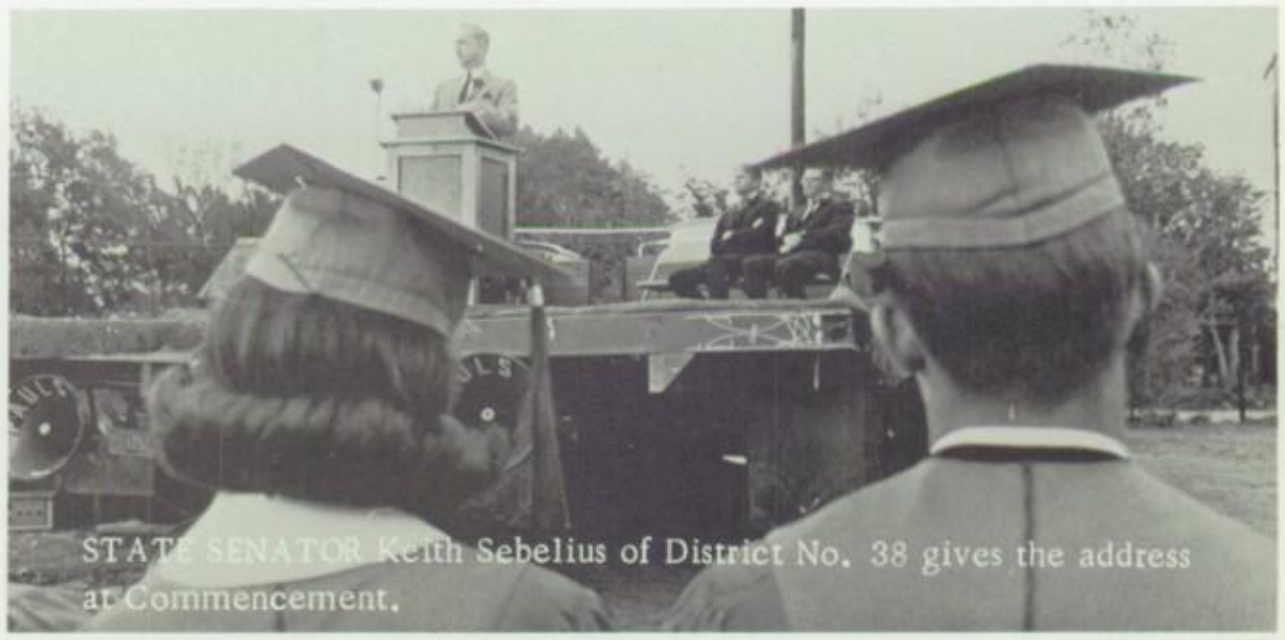
Mr. Schamber announced Jane Matteson as salutatorian and Linda Wyley as valedictorian.

To close the awards assembly, the seniors led the group in singing the alma mater.

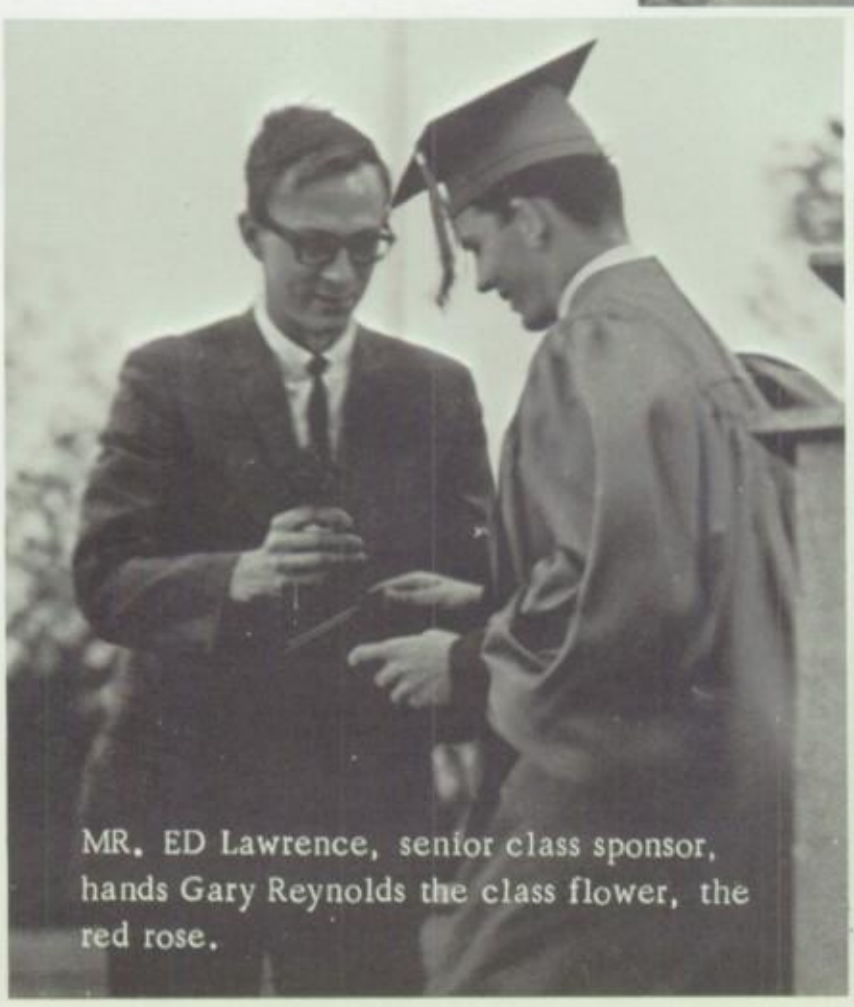
MR. SCHAMBER gives last minute advice to the seniors before Baccalaureate.

Class of '67 — With Honorable Discharge

The first Eastern Heights Commencement was held on the football field on May 18, 1967. The Reverend Virgil Anderson gave the invocation. "Moments to Remember" was sung by the Girls Triple Trio II. Principal C. A. Schamber presented the guest speaker Senator Keith Sebelius. The senior girls sang their last song, "Halls of Ivy." Superintendent Robert E. Mosier presented the class to Harvey Underwood, school board president, who awarded the diplomas. Principal C. A. Schamber then cut the ribbons held by each senior, symbolizing that each one is separate from the other. The Benediction was then given by the Reverend Virgil Anderson. Both the Processional and Recessional were played by Miss Mildred Dixon.



STATE SENATOR Keith Sebelius of District No. 38 gives the address at Commencement.



MR. ED Lawrence, senior class sponsor, hands Gary Reynolds the class flower, the red rose.

MR. HARVEY Underwood, school board president, presents Val Reed with the prized diploma.

In Memory Of

Mrs. Elaine Beckman

"The teaching profession misses one of their finest teachers after the sudden death of Mrs. Elaine Beckman on December 15, 1966. Teaching was Mrs. Beckman's natural calling. She was dedicated to teaching and loved and understood children."

These are tributes to Mrs. Beckman from her administrators and fellow teachers.

Mrs. Beckman taught the first and second grades at Agra this year until the day before her death. Last year she taught math classes in the Agra Grade School.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION officers for the 1966-67 school year were Mrs. Marjorie Jones, president; Mrs. Coleen Gale, secretary; Mrs. Lona Lala, treasurer; and Mrs. Nellie Ellenburger, vice-president.

PTA Officers Plan Varied Programs

The Parent-Teacher Association was an active organization this year with a variety of well-planned programs.

For the first program of the year, they had a buzz session with five discussion groups: administration, special reading, homework, science and mathematics, and P.T.A. A-Go-Go. Other programs included an art exhibit from Fort Hays Kansas State College, tumbling exhibition by the grade school, the film, "Mathematics for Tomorrow," was shown, the One-Act play, and the Senior Farewell.

The P.T.A. held a Fun Night to raise money, which included a talent show during the dinner and both modern and square dancing after the talent show. The P.T.A. voted to use the money they raised to buy gymnastic equipment for the Physical Education department.

MRS. JONES CONDUCTS the business meeting at the Community Building at Kirwin. A large crowd turned out for the grade school tumbling exhibition.

The first year of Eastern Heights witnessed many trials for the administration and student body. However, as a solution to each problem was carefully considered we realized even more fully the truth in Carl Sandburg's statement "...The people, yes, the people. In the drive of faiths on the wind today the people know: 'We have come far and we are going farther yet...'"

Without you, the students and faculty of Eastern Heights, the MUSTANG would have nothing to tell. You have made this book possible and it has been compiled for you. Here are my thanks to subscribers, advertisers, and the senior class who have made this book financially possible.

A yearbook must have something to say and someone willing to say it. To each member and to the sponsor of the MUSTANG staff, a sincere thank you for your time and efforts in planning pages, choosing pictures, and writing copy.

This has been a complicated process, but one we feel is worth the effort--we hope that you will too, as you read and re-read this first chapter in the story of Eastern Heights High School.
